

ABOUT OUR THEATRE

Stebens Children's Theatre (SCT) makes a huge difference to young lives of the students who enter the world of youth theatre. The students at Stebens speak reverently of the theatre as a place they enjoy and belong. The parents are grateful for an organization that provides such a healthy learning environment. Patrons appreciate the hard work and resulting high quality theatrical productions. Finally, SCT teachers have now witnessed a generation (25 years) of young people maturing in the arts.

SCT teaches theatre to North Iowa young people; as well as the importance of teamwork, cooperation, dedication, commitment to common goals, diligent practice and exposure to adult leadership and ideals. These are all essential skills for tomorrow's leaders. While the result may be quality theatre, the SCT mission is children.

Like many local organizations that provide young people with positive programs, SCT needs long-term financial support. That is why The Children's Theatre Foundation was started; so that SCT will be around for a long time, no matter the ups and downs of the current economy.

THE CHILDREN'S THEATRE FOUNDATION

An investment in The Children's Theatre Foundation is an investment in the future.

A Children's Theatre Where Productions Move People

The sole mission of The Children's Theatre Foundation is to solicit, acquire, and manage gifts of money or property for the exclusive purpose of providing economic assistance to the Steben Children's Theatre (SCT.) The foundation seeks to set aside funds that will be available to support the operations of SCT. The Foundation seeks to receive direct gifts made through financial planning that is made to honor individuals (living or deceased) and annual pledges.

The Children's Theatre Foundation is a local charity. Every dollar you give will be used to support SCT directly and help local young people use their time in a positive environment. Only Foundation Board members and committee volunteers are used to raise financial support (there are no hidden or outside fundraising costs).
